

Walter Hamilton Joins ID Technology Partners

North Potomac, MD, January 23, 2007 – Identification Technology Partners, Inc. (IDTP) announced that Walter Hamilton has joined IDTP as a senior consultant. Mr. Hamilton brings over 40 years of experience in IT and biometric systems to the firm. Mr. Hamilton comes to IDTP having served as Vice President and General Manager; Biometric Solutions for Saflink Corporation. Prior to joining Saflink in 1995, Mr. Hamilton enjoyed a distinguished 30-year career at Unisys Corporation.

Mr. Hamilton is a recognized biometric industry authority and subject matter expert, often participating as a panelist and presenter at industry and government symposiums. "Walter is an exciting addition to our team", said Stephen Hunt, Partner and COO of IDTP. "I've known Walter for years, and have witnessed the influence of his work on the visibility and use of biometrics in the marketplace. He is an invaluable asset to the industry."

Mr. Hamilton was recently elected to a third term as Chairman of the International Biometric Industry Association (IBIA), a Washington, D.C.-based non-profit trade association. He also serves as Chairman of The Biometric Foundation (TBF), a non-profit research and education organization. "IDTP is a respected authority on identity management and biometrics, and I look forward to contributing to the growth and success of the firm", said Walter Hamilton.

About Identification Technology Partners, Inc.
