

IDTP TEAM MEMBERS RECEIVE PRESTIGIOUS AWARD FROM SECURE TECHNOLOGY ALLIANCE

Tucson, Arizona – February 28, 2024

Two IDTP team members were recognized for their leadership by the Secure Technology Alliance (STA) at their 2024 Identity and Payments Summit in Tucson, Arizona. Lars Suneborn and Gerry Smith were presented with The Idea Generator Award for conducting the first ever training session on security fundamentals at the event.

This marks the first time that this category of leadership award has been presented by the STA.
